“When you are not using it, you don't know it's there”

We asked a number of music teachers for their thoughts and ideas on music stands, and we noted what they said. Then we took their wish list to our designers and this is what we came up with...

- 1. EASY TO STORE. Firstly, we invented a folding stand that can be piled onto a trolley, put in a travel case or even folded into a bag. Then, just for good measure, we invented a non-folding stand that can be stacked away and has a closed height of 25% less than other non-folding stands.
- 2. SIMPLE TO PUT UP AND EASY TO PUT AWAY. We were told: “no knobs to lose or fiddle with, no finger traps, no complex arrangements which might amuse the children but can make the stand fall over.”
- 3. LOOKS GREAT ON STAGE. We wanted a stand which looks good to parents, while also being rugged to the point of being unbreakable.
- 4. HOLDS THE MUSIC IN A FULL SIZE MUSIC TRAY. It is, after all, what the music stand is there to do.
- 5. READY TO HAVE A LIGHT ATTACHED AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE. And, of course, we have a choice of lights available as well.
- 6. ADJUSTABLE AND FLEXIBLE and thus suitable for children of different sizes.
- 7. EASY TO CARRY – with bags and cases available for the Jazz Stand.
- 8. COMPETITIVELY PRICED – all the extra benefits without extra cost. And, as long as you quote the order codes on the reverse of this leaflet, you'll get a special price offer as well.

Performer Stands can also be nested when not on a trolley

Both the Jazz and Performer stands have virtually unbreakable trays which spring back if bent

The Jazz Stands unfold for flat in three simple moves

Both the Jazz and Performer Stands have adjustable heights and angles without any knobs, finger traps or complex arrangements

The Jazz stand offers a huge range of height adjustment for all circumstances
